

CamiNet.org

CamiNet.org is the most modern and important Digital Documentation Centre on the Camino de Santiago in the world on the contemporary world of the Jacobean Way. Its launch has been possible thanks to the Department of Culture, Tourism and Sport of the Junta de Castilla y León.

This repository represents a qualitative leap in innovation for the Jacobean physical library of the Centre for Studies and Documentation of the Camino de Santiago, located in the monastery of San Zoilo in Carrión de los Condes. It was created by Ángel Luis Barreda, the first general coordinator of the Associations of Friends of the Camino de Santiago in Spain.

An essential digital space to learn about, study and be curious about one of the most unique movements of the last century in the field of culture and traditions of Spain: the rebirth of the Camino de Santiago and the massive return of pilgrims to it.

More than 3,000 documents on the history of the recent rebirth of the Camino de Santiago, in a number that exceeds 100,000 pages with original documents, studies, photographs, audio and visual documents, etc.
